Feature:

As a Admin of hosted gallery

I want to organize photos in albums

so that I can manage my photos in albums.

Scenario: create album

Given I am logged in

And I am on the managing page

When I click on "create new album"

And I enter a valid name

And click "Okay"

Then I should see "successfully created a new album"

And I should have a new album

Scenario: put photo into album

Given I am logged in

And I am on the managing page

When I drag "photo.png" from the list

And drop it on the album "new album"

And open "new album"

Then I should see "photo.png"

Scenario: delete album

Given I am logged in

And I am on the managing page

And I have selected "new album"

When and I click on "delete"

And I click on "okay"

Then I should see "deleted album 'new album'"

And I should'nt see "new album"
